Miss Dorothy Gene Norwood was a very close runner-up in the race for the coveted title of Miss I.J.C.

Miss Margaret McQuary and Miss Mary Ann Roberson were also very close runners-up in the Who's Who. Margaret was runner-up in Wittiest and Mary Ann in Most Talented.

WHO'S WHO

WHO'S WHO? These words don't seem any more important than an owl's hoot at first glance, but they are. Many times in the mad scramble here at I.J.C. we overlook some of the people that possess the admirable traits of leadership, efficiency, cooperation, and service. Who's Who acts as a telescope to get a better view of the brightly shining stars that so often have not received the recognition that they merit because of the quiet nature of their work.

The Itawamba Junior College Band was organized six years ago under the direction of Berlin Robbins. Four years ago he started the Indianettes, a marching group of girls. The band has been recognized all over the state as one of the best show bands.

Besides performing for many of the college and high school football games, this band is invited every year to take part in Christmas parades and fair parades in all the surrounding counties. They also attend the Cotton Carnival in Memphis, Tennessee, every year and give several concerts throughout each school year.

"Sports make up a large portion of the extracurriculum activities on our I.J.C. Reservation. Not only do the Indians participate in football, baseball, and basketball, but also, they participate in tennis, shuffleboard, softball, and ping pong. Now with the addition of a new pool the braves and maidens enjoy swimming in the hotter months of the year."

At the beginning of the year
the Baptist students were welcomed with the annual Welcome Party in the Rek Hall.

Dorothy must have been having a good time from the way that she was smiling at the photographer.

All the people that take math
have agreed that the party this year was a huge success
as Mrs. Mayhall's parties always are.

"Jane is trying but she just can't do it like "Dog"
does."

The B.S.U. had quite a big delegation
to the convention at Hattiesburg.
They posed
for our photographer in front of the bus and again
in West Point
after eating.

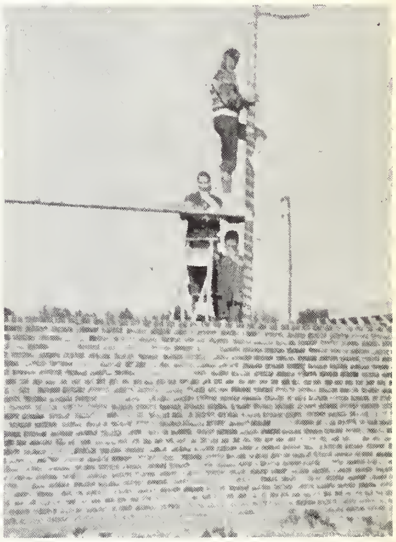
Our Indian Cheerleaders are all up in the air over the game with Sunflower.

"Little Herman" isn't breaking training; just enjoying the Welcome Party. We just hope that he was in when Coach checked the beds at ten on the dot.

Students get spiritual guidance at the daily noonday devotionals. Mrs. Edna Mae Burns is the teacher that helps the students plan and carry out the daily program.

The College Sextet performed for the High School Assembly.

A. B. and his co-workers in the concession stand at one of the basketball games.



What would the field look like on Saturday night if the girls didn't risk breaking their necks decorating the posts?

Shirley and Lando planning a year's work for B.S.U.

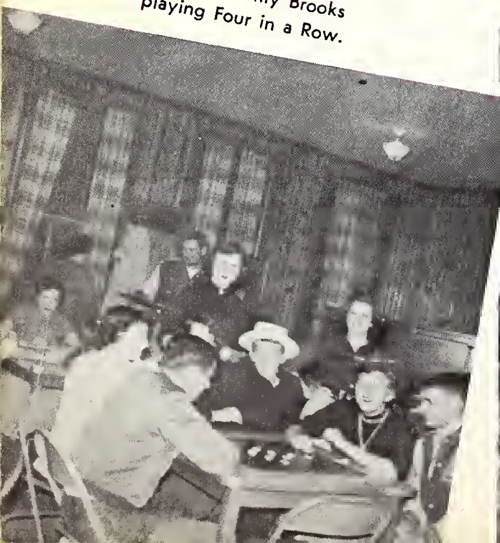
Margaret Helen makes a pig of herself.

Tommy and "Little Red" clown in the chow hall.

Mrs. Coggins in chow line.

Mrs. Senter and Mrs. Miller, our Rek Hall keepers.

Betty and Billy Brooks playing Four in a Row.



The Boys get together for a game of checkers.

Get a load of that Yogi.

There is a difference between a happy week night, and a drab Sat. afternoon in the girls' dorm. QUIET GIRLS! Mrs. Coggins is on her way up the steps.

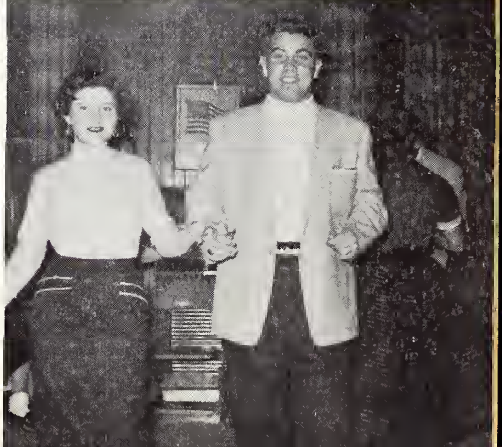
GIRLS, the hall and the rooms must be cleaned even on Saturday. Get to work, Nell and Etoile.

The gang is on the prowl again. June is shocked because "Mudd's" knee is showing. Be Careful Mudd.

What would the dormitory be like without bears like Richard and Bert.

The B.S.U. Council get their heads together at least once a week, if it is for nothing but foolishness.

Everyone at the Band Party had a wonderful time eating, exchanging gifts, and dancing. Look at Hilda and Buckey GO!!!



For our annual Senior Day, our Dramatics and Music Departments combined their talents to present "Mississippi Melody," a light operetta. There were several productions of this operetta given throughout this school area.

"The purpose of this, the Itawamba Junior College Cast of Delta Psi Omega is: to stimulate interest in dramatic activities in Itawamba Junior College to secure for the college all the advantages of a large national fraternity, and by electing worthy students to membership, serve as a reward for participation in the dramatic activities of the college. This cast in no way means to take the place of the regular college dramatic club."

NATIONAL GUARD UNIT

The purpose of the 193rd Transportation Company (Lt. Trk.) located on the Itawamba Junior College Campus has two obligations. As a Mississippi National Guard Unit, it must be ready to go to the assistance of any state emergency which may arise. As a federally recognized unit it must train men to provide a truck service for the movement of unit personnel and supplies of other organizations of the army to include employment within the Infantry Division when required.
